We were very impressed with the thorough preparation shown when Rosalyn presented her plan for selling our home. Time was of the essence for us and we wanted someone who would aggressively promote the sale of our home. It was also important to us that the company they were associated with had an excellent marketing plan and outreach.

Our home was listed on a Sunday afternoon and by the following Friday we were negotiating a contract. The contract was contingent on the buyer selling their home out of state. Rosalyn was very conscientious in updating and verifying that all was proceeding as scheduled while at the same time marketing our home until the contingency on the home sale was removed.

We would highly recommend her to our friends and neighbors.

Sincerely,

Janet & Mack Blankenship
