Dear Shane & Faith,

First and foremost, I wanted to let you know how much I value your business! Secondly, I hope the dust has had a chance to settle from the move and you're starting to enjoy your new surroundings. And last, but not least, I need your assistance in order to continually improve the services I offer. Please complete the following Survey and return to me at your earliest convenience. Naturally I love compliments, but please give me your suggestions for improvement, too. Your comments will help me maintain the high quality standards I've set for myself.

Thanks in advance for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Rosalyn Miller

Additional comments:

We already knew which house we wanted to buy by the time we got Rosalyn involved... We had originally dealt with Nancy Gibbs in the past... who referred us to Rosalyn. At first we thought we would 'settle' for Rosalyn, but we soon learned we weren't settling at all! Rosalyn is Fabulous, and love her just as much as Nancy!

Please return to me in the enclosed envelope.

P.S. If you know of anyone that needs a Realtor (Friends, Relatives or anyone at Work), I hope you'd feel comfortable referring them to me. Your trust and confidence are not things I take lightly!

→ You can count on us sending/referring clients her way.

*We love ya, Rosalyn! ☺
